Permission

I give permission for my child or youth (or if signing on my own behalf, as a leader attending this activity, I personally consent) to participate in the event and activities listed above (unless noted) and authorize the adult leaders supervising this event to administer emergency treatment to the above-named participant for any accident or illness and to act in my stead in approving necessary medical care. This authorization shall cover this event and travel to and from this event.

Please note: Units may not have the ability to meet all medical, physical, and other accommodations and are asked to counsel with parents or guardians on what is possible.

The participant is responsible for his or her own conduct and is aware of and agrees to abide by Church standards, camp or event safety rules, and other pertinent instructions. The participant's conduct and interactions should abide by Church standards and exemplify Christlike behavior, including those listed on the attached "Conduct at Church Activities."

Parents and participants should understand that participation in an activity is not a right but a privilege that can be revoked if participants behave inappropriately or if they pose a risk to themselves or others.

This information is collected to help event and activity leaders or medical personnel so they can be prepared and appropriately respond to health concerns or an emergency. It will be kept confidential and shared only as needed.

Conduct at Church Activities

Church events and activities can be fun, uplifting, and spiritually strengthening for everyone who attends. To reach these aims, all participants are invited to commit to follow the principles taught in For the Strength of Youth: A Guide for Making Choices. When you do, the experience will be better for everyone.

Please note that Church activities are not the time or place for romantic behavior or for conversations and actions that distract from the purpose of the event or activity.

If you participate in any of the following prohibited activities, leaders at the event or activity will speak with you, your parents, and your bishop or stake president. These leaders may decide to send you home immediately.

- Participating in or encouraging immoral behavior of any kind, which includes breaking the law of chastity or viewing or distributing pornography in any form
- Shoplifting, theft, or vandalism of any kind
- Breaking the Word of Wisdom, including vaping and possessing illegal or harmful substances
- Possessing weapons or dangerous items of any kind (if specifically authorized, certain items may be provided and used in supervised activities)
- Harming or threatening to harm yourself or others physically, spiritually, or emotionally, including bullying in any form or disrupting another's experience
- Leaving without following proper procedures, skipping scheduled activities without permission, or breaking curfew

Crimes and harmful or destructive incidents or pranks may be reported to local authorities, who will respond according to local law. Leaders follow the direction of these authorities.
